ARMS FOR CUBA.

Paris, Dec. 30.

The Atlantic newspaper says that about a year ago Russia ordered 200,000 rifles of a new pattern from the United States, and that the arms were shipped from the United States to Cadiz, there sent to the Czar. The Government has protested against the shipment of the arms, and has ordered that 100,000 rifles.

THE CABINET APPOINTMENTS.

Paris, Dec. 30.—5 p. m.

Official lists are not yet issued in Ministry.

Paris, Dec. 30.

Up to this time, 4 o'clock, everything is quiet, and no disturbances.

THE ARMY OF THE RHINE.

Paris, Dec. 30.—Midnight.

In the Corps Legislatif, this afternoon, M. Ollivier announced that he had accepted the Ministry, as follows: Minister of the Interior, M. Chevandier; Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. Billault; Minister of Justice, M. Grandperret; Minister of Finance, M. Forcade La Roquette; Minister of Commerce, M. Louvet; Minister of Instruction, M. Parieu; Minister of Public Works, M. Plichon; Minister of Fine Arts, M. Vaillant, as well as Lebreuil, Segris, and Gressier, who retain their respective offices.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

The Finance Committee reported the names of the members of the C. constituting the Committee of Ways and Means, and the Committee on Appropriations. Mr. B. F. Gregory's name was omitted in the former report, and was supplied by a letter to-day.

Mr. Cook, of Cook, read the report of the Grand Committee on Credentials, which was adopted.

Mr. Joseph Hoyne, of Chicago, was then introduced, and took the oath of office. He was the only member of colored descent present, and he could be distinguished by his color. He could not be distinguished in any other way, as he was dressed in the height of fashion, and looked as much like a white man as any of the members. He was not sworn in with the rest, but was sworn in separately. He was not sworn in with the rest, but was sworn in separately. He was not sworn in with the rest, but was sworn in separately.

Mr. Fredrick, who was not having anything said about him, rose to a question of privilege, and said he would like to know what was the matter with him. He was a white man, and he would like to know why he was not sworn in with the rest
